

Patrick Parke
Midwest Energy

Pat Parke is Vice President Customer Service for Midwest Energy where he has worked for 23 years.

His duties include oversight of activities in customer service, energy efficiency, economic & community development, rates and regulatory affairs.

Pat is a graduate of Kansas State University with Bachelors and Masters Degrees in Agricultural Engineering.

Pat's community involvement includes:

- ◆ Ellis County United Way
- ◆ High Plains Public Radio Board
- ◆ Hays Medical Center Foundation, and
- ◆ Hays Kiwanis Club.

His wife Chardell is a supervisor for Quest Laboratories. They have 2 children: Carlee who is attending college in the State of Washington, and Eli who is beginning his doctorate in plasma physics at the University of Wisconsin.